Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Flexible end to the UTC day for Year 12 students

To allow them to make a choice about how and when they study our existing students have the privilege of being able to leave the UTC before 5pm if their lessons have finished for the day. As our Year 12 students have settled in so well we are extending the first stage of this to them from the start of next week. This means that if they do not have a timetabled lesson after Tutorial (after 4:10 Monday to Thursday and 3:20 Friday) then they will be able to sign out and go home when they are ready.

This flexibility will allow students to avoid rush hour traffic on the days when they have completed their timetabled lessons and also to make intelligent choices about when and where they will study best. However this is a privilege and will be withdrawn if an individual has failed to meet expectations of conduct during the UTC day, is failing to keep up with their studies or misuses the privilege.

It is our intention that this flexibility will be increased for Year 12 students after the October/November holiday so that they will be able to take more responsibility for their choices about how and where they study.

Yours faithfully,
