

Privacy notice for job applicants

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals applying for jobs at our school.

We, Health Futures UTC, 350 High Street, West Bromwich, B70 8DJ, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is provided to us by SIPS Education (see 'Contact us' below).

Successful candidates should refer to our privacy notice for the school workforce for information about how their personal data is collected, stored and used. This will be provided to successful candidates by the Director of Operations at the time of the appointment.

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to aid the recruitment process by:

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data we collect as part of the job application process is stored in line with our data protection policy and records management policy.

When it is no longer required, we will delete your information in accordance with our records management policy.

If you require a copy of our records management policy prior to employment with us, you can request this by emailing our admin account at: admin@healthfuturesutc.co.uk.
